The steamer Hoo Hoo was pressed into service Sunday to take a picnic party up the Lewis river to La Center. Some of the parties present were Messrs. Orin Shepherd, Roy Bauserman, Misses Gene Reed and Lillie McKinley. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Rees Hall.

The Portland Mazamas held a picnic on the river bank below town Sunday. They came down on the Undine, 250 strong. They had a number of canoes on board and had all kinds of fun riding the waves made by the river steamers. It looked like they were all in bathing at the same time. They certainly put in an enjoyable day.

A. S. Harrison and family attended the grocers' picnic at Bonneville Wednesday. Among other merchants attending were Grant Watts of Scappoose and N. A. Perry of Houlton. About 400 came up on the Undine from Vancouver. The ball game between the grocers and Vancouver was a hummer, 2 to 1 in favor of the grocers. Mr. Harrison says there is no reason why the grocers' picnic should not be held in St. Helens next year if our business men will only boost a little. It would mean at least 6,000 people here, besides the advertising it would bring. It was held here several years ago, where the shipbuilding plant is now located.

J. H. Cameron of Westport, was a business visitor in St. Helens Thursday.

ST. HELENS-WARREN ROAD NOW OPEN

The road leading from St. Helens to Warren, which for the past two weeks has been closed on account of the repair work being done, is now open. Roadmaster Elton Felton states the road is not yet completed but is in very good shape and teams and automobiles can now take this route instead of the more round about way which has been used. Mr. Felton will put another dressing of fine rock on the road and give it a good rolling before he calls the job complete.

PRESS CRITICISMS

Mme. Petrova, the famous Polish emotional actress, will be seen at the Strand on Sunday, the 30th, in "Playing With Fire." This is a strong, vital story written by Aaron Hoffman, the successful playwright, especially for Mme. Petrova to fit her unusual and peculiar talents. This photo play is a worthy successor to "What Will People Say," which made such a big hit when shown here.

In the flood of thrilling romances, vulgar comedies and sex dramas, it is a relief to find a good old-fashioned play like Denman Thompson's rural classic, "The Old Homestead," being adapted for the motion picture screen. This beloved old comedy-drama, which for over thirty years has held the laughter and tears of the public under its magic spell, will be the Paramount picture at the Strand on Monday, the 31st. "The Old Homestead," like "Uncle Tom's Cabin," has proven its popularity and its undying interest to generation after generation of theatre-goers, and it is estimated that in the three decades during which the play was being presented on the stage, it was seen by over twenty million people in the United States and Canada.

The story of an opera singer's career is depicted in the photodramatic production of "The Temptation," which will be the attraction at the Strand on Wednesday, August 2. Geraldine Farrar, the celebrated prima donna, heads the all star cast in this notable Paramount production. This is Miss Farrar's second picture, her first one being "Carmen," which was one of the greatest successes ever shown on the screen.

"GOODS OF QUALITY"

Good morning! "Dainty Daisy" takes pleasure in introducing to you her brother, "Genial Jim."

He is a newcomer in St. Helens, but has come to stay....

You will hear from him quite often as he is a popular fellow....

"Jim" planned to go bathing this week but he couldn't find his bathing suit....

"Daisy" informed him that Muckle's had a nice assortment of Spaulding's suits in black, navy, gray, maroon and green. Jim decided that there was no need of his missing a swim for want of a suit when he saw them....

"Daisy" liked him so well that she got one, too, and now they both unite in asking you to "Come on in, the water's fine."...

Good-bye! Will see you next week.....
